

This week's homework is Creative. You can show this in any way you like - drawing, writing, cutting out pictures and sticking in.

I can show how lunchboxes have changed over time.

In our history-based Time Travel topic, we are thinking about how things change over time and how things in your child's life might be different to that of their parent/carer or grandparents. Use the template provided to show what your child would typically have in a lunchbox and then what you (as a parent or carer - or ask a grandparent) might have had in your own lunchbox.
