Lost it found it by Mandy Coe

I looked inside a pocket
I looked beneath a garden rock
I looked into an elephant's eye
I looked in a flower pot
I looked in the pouch of a kangaroo
I looked into the sea
I looked up a redbrick chimney
I looked in a hole in a tree
I looked in sunlight, I looked in rain
I looked in a lift, I looked on a train
I looked in the chorus of a song
Guess where I found it?
Here! It was right here all along

 RETRIEVE	Write two places where they looked.
 INTERPRET	Find a pair of words that rhyme.
 CHOICE	Why do you think the poet wrote 'I looked in' on every line? It was the only words they could think of. <input type="checkbox"/> They wanted to make a pattern. <input type="checkbox"/>
